

The Andy Griffith
Show

Standing Tall

Andy, Barney and Opie are quite a law enforcement team in Mayberry. Andy doesn't usually carry a gun, but Opie often carries one and of course Barney is almost always packing his "Old Roscoe."

When he's not helping track down desperate criminals, Opie's normal Courthouse duties include emptying the trash. As for Barney, he's responsible for maintaining the bulletin board.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Say Watt?

MRS. MENDELBRIGHT: This is a 75 watt bulb and the rule is no bulb over 40 watts. And you keep it on all night.

BARNEY: Well, I'm studying if you must know.

MRS. M.: I've seen you sleeping with it on.

BARNEY: Snoop! Snoop!

MRS. M.: You're afraid of the dark.

BARNEY: Bulb snatcher!

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Evening News

After a busy day of cutting hair, it's easy to understand why Floyd would want to relax and read his newspaper on his front porch during the evening.

And there's certainly no one in Mayberry who knows more about relaxing than Floyd. Nothing seems to faze him — not even a rider dressed in black riding a white horse that might be passing by.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Mayberry Waltz

When Opie develops a crush on Miss Crump ("Opie Loves Helen," Episode #132), he doesn't realize that he's stepping on Andy's toes. After all, Helen is Andy's girlfriend.

All's well that ends well, though. Once Opie understands his father's interest in Helen, he bows out. However, that's not to say that Andy's a better dancer. Andy sums up his dancing skills: "I two-step a little."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

©1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Deputy Dosage

It must be a mark of the Fifes that they don't like to take medicine. (Who can forget Barney's reluctance to get his tetanus shot?) But if anybody can persuade Barney to take his medicine, it's Ellie Walker.

Not that Barney's not concerned about his health; he is. It's just that the Fifes are all so sensitive.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Chance of a Ghost?

Retrieving Opie's lost baseball was the easy part. But once the three brave men are in the Old Remshaw House, things begin to get really interesting.

Not to worry: Old Man Remshaw (that's his portrait over the mantel) will keep an eye on things.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Picnicking Pals

All Mayberrmans love picnics. And that goes double for Andy and Helen, and Barney and Thelma Lou. The most popular place to go is out by Myers' Lake.

There's no telling what sort of delicious foods Helen and Thelma Lou have prepared. Of course, the picnickers are luckiest when Aunt Bee has sent along some of her special fried chicken or maybe a few slices of apple pie

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

"Hey! Stop it, you! Can't you see I'm holding up the rosy red?"

118

"Hey! Stop it, you! Can't you see I'm holding up the busy red!"

It must have seemed like a good idea at the time when Andy decided to give Ernest T. Bass the job at the school crossing ("Malcolm at the Crossroads, #164). Unfortunately, it's Ernest T. who's cross.

And besides that, he has a tendency to use his sign more as a club for swatting at disobedient cars. Needless to say, his hours as a crossing guard are numbered even lower than he can count.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

©1980
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Cabin Fever

Andy and Barney make a trip up to the mountains and passed the Robert E. Lee Natural Bridge (an oak tree that fell across a shallow place in the creek) to visit the Darlings at their cabin.

Andy and Barney knew when they were getting close to the cabin because they could hear the sounds of bluegrass music coming out the roof. But there are other fish to fry this day — namely Ernest T. Bass, who wants to marry Charlene Darling.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood WA 98037

© 1990
Meyberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Calls of Concern

When Goober decides to take the plunge and buy Wally's Filling Station ('Goober the Executive, #221), he forgets a few minor details like ordering parts. And gas

But with the help of his chief financial advisor (Opie), Goober soon builds his confidence and makes the shift to the operator of a smooth-running business.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

"Not now, Leon.
I'm on a case."

When Weaver's Department Store is being robbed blind, Barney is not one to duck the investigation. He immediately disguises himself and joins the hunt.

Still, Barney would have to get up pretty early in the morning to fool wily Leon — or anybody else for that matter. In any case, serious detective work is no place for a snack

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Posse

While Andy's away ("Andy's Vacation," #118), Barney and temporary deputy Gomer manage to let their prisoner escape. Barney hopes to recapture the prisoner before Andy finds out. With Gomer along to help, Barney has his work cut out for him.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

"Suck in that gut!"

Otis surely has second thoughts about being even a temporary deputy when he is subjected to Barney's rigorous indoctrination and training. Not the least of Barney's problems is trying to figure out how to get Otis to suck in his gut and stand up straight at the same time. As Andy says, ""It's got to go somewhere, Barn."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood WA 98037

©1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Mr. McBeevee

Opie gets a charge from lineman Mr. McBeevee (Karl Swenson), whose magical qualities are almost too sensational to be believed.

Indeed, Andy and Barney think Opie's imagination has gotten the better of him. But while at first Andy doesn't believe there is a Mr. McBeevee, he's quick to add, "I do believe in Opie." Soon Mr. McBeevee makes a believer of him too.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

On Patrol

Some folks in Mayberry may rest easier knowing that Barney is making his rounds in the squad car. Others may not.

Of course, not all of Barney's uses for the squad car are official police business. As often as not, he's running errands, such as getting ice cream for Thelma Lou. But as he tells Thelma Lou, "I'm a public servant and you're a mighty cute public."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

"East to west!
East to west!"

When the superstitious Darlings come to town with their mountain incantations for Charlene's divorce ("Divorce, Mountain Style," Episode #121), it's up to Barney to nullify Charlene's renewed romantic designs on Andy by invoking the Curse of the White Horse.

Never mind that Barney is allergic to horse hair (if you must know). He still must accomplish his mission of dressing in black and riding a white horse east to west in the full moon.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

No Loitering

When Ernest T. Bass loses his job as the school crossing guard to former "Coldcream Guard" Malcolm Merriweather, he doesn't get much sympathy from Goober and Floyd. There's only one thing left for Ernest T. to do — fight Malcolm.

As luck would have it, though, Andy informs Ernest T. that Malcolm is a fellow Irishman, which saves Malcolm from a thrashing — that is, until Ernest T. finds out Malcolm is actually English. The rest is better left untold.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

©1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

"Five."

When Barney celebrates his five years on the Mayberry police force, he receives a stainless steel wristwatch with the inscription "5" on the back.

The occasion is marred somewhat when Barney finds out about new weight and height requirements for the state's law enforcement personnel. However, a fortunate chain of events leads to a happy ending.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

"Hit one for the ol' Goober."

The ball game's on the line when it's Opie's turn at bat for the Mayberry Giants ("The Ball Game," Episode #195). He gets a hit and dashes for homeplate to try for the winning run.

The play at home is close, but it's not the only catch. Andy is the umpire. When his call is an unpopular "Out!" it's Andy who must run for the dugout.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by Pacific Broadcasting Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

"Ten-hut!"

Whenever you see Gomer in a deputy outfit (even on a temporary basis), you know you've got a desperate situation on your hands.

For the most part, Gomer is sworn in on special occasions like parades and the time there was a flood. But sometimes he's called upon to help guard prisoners and then catch them when they escape, which they inevitably will do.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

©1980
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

"Relax. Set.
One, two, throw!"

When the Fix-It Shop bowling team needs a substitute player, Howard is eager to step in with his striking form ("Howard the Bowler," Episode #224).

Everyone is surprised to find that bowling is right down Howard's alley. In fact, he bowls a perfect game — with room to spare. That's a big relief to Emmett, who spent his whole year's advertising budget of $24 to buy the three shirts for the team.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Steamy Situation

More than the Darlings' truck is overheating when they roll into town for Charlene's first encounter with Andy.

The truck's radiator takes 11 hatfuls of water, but it'll take more than that to cool Charlene's romantic intentions.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Fife and Harmonica Blues

Andy and Barney have an explosive situation on their hands when Jimmy the goat eats dynamite ("The Loaded Goat," Episode #81).

They soon discover that Barney's harmonica playing has a soothing effect on their restless friend and are able to lead him out of town until the danger passes.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood WA 98037

© 1980
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Ernest T.
Studies Earnestly

Inspired by his "Mother Figure" (Helen Crump), Ernest T. is determined to get his diploma, which means that he needs to learn a few things.

Andy helps Ernest T. write sentences, learn his United States geography (not counting Old Man Kelsey's Ocean, which Ernest T. already knows about) and get in step with mathematics.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Law on the Crawl

BARNEY: "It's a wilderness out there. And every so often a beast of prey comes sneaking in. Now, it's my job as a lawman to stalk him and run him out. That's my number one job — stalking, not fly-killing."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Gomer Gets the Blues

It probably wasn't Gomer's best move to wear Sgt. Carter's dress blues ("Gomer Pyle, U.S.M.C.," Episode #107). But then again it wasn't his worst either.

Gomer has a lot to learn about the Marines, but he's eager to serve and do the Pyle name proud. That's genuine service with a smile.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

"Giddy-up Old Paint!"

Otis thinks his cow is a horse ("The Rehabilitation of Otis," Episode #145), but that's the least of his problems by the time Barney starts to work on him.

In fact, Barney rides Otis so hard that Otis decides to start spending his nights sobering up in the Mt. Pilot jail. But it's not long before he leads a stampede back to Mayberry.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Warren and Andy on Call

The phone at the Courthouse could ring any minute, and Andy and Warren would be ready to handle any problem. As often as not, Warren is likely to be part of the problem.

When he arrests the entire Ladies' Auxiliary for illegal gambling (Bingo), Warren follows in Barney's sizable footsteps by trying to enforce every law on the books.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

"Barney!"

There's only one thing that could shock Thelma Lou — seeing Barney with the likes of "fun girls" from Mt. Pilot. Helen has eyes too, so Andy's goose soon will be cooked too.

Things will work out in the end (they always are in Mayberry), but not until Barney gets an earful to go with Thelma Lou's eyeful.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Mayberry Getaway

It's not often that Andy and Helen have the chance to get away by themselves, but Barney makes them "a present of Saturday" one time ("Andy and Helen Have Their Day," Episode #140).

That was the plan, anyway. But somehow Cupid Barney keeps finding reasons to bother them during their retreat to the outdoors. Before long, it becomes a very long day for Andy and Helen.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood WA 98037

©1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Extra! Extra!

Barney is indeed a hero when he rescues Andy and Helen from a cave-in at Lost Lovers Cave ("Barney and the Cave Rescue," Episode #109).

Barney's brave rescue of his friends was quite a feat considering that only moments before the cave-in he had worried about entering the cave for fear of getting bat eggs (or even moth eggs) in his hair.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Opie Taylor Sr. and Dr. Pendyke

Gomer pretends to be Opie's father and Barney poses as veterinarian U.T. Pendyke in order to help Opie and his pals, who worry about being black-listed for not selling enough Miracle Salve.

According to Dr. Pendyke, Miracle Salve is good for poison ivy, prickly rash, athlete's foot, the complexion, spring itch and crow's feet — not to mention mange, according to Dr. Pendyke

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

"You get a line and I'll get a pole, babe!"

OPIE: Paw, if she's such a great fisherman like you been telling me, how come she fishes with her bait out of the water?

ANDY: Oh-h-h, well. See, this is little bitty stream fishin', you see, and Aunt Bee, she's used to deep sea fishing — porpoises and flying fish and stuff like that.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood WA 98037

©1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Family Time

Rance Howard visits with sons Ron and Clint on "The Andy Griffith Show" set. Rance appears in several episodes in roles ranging from a law enforcement official to bus driver to chauffeur for the governor.

Rance also provided the storyline for "The Ball Game" (Episode #195) in which Opie is erroneously called out at homeplate by Andy.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Keeper of the Door

It's an important responsibility to be Keeper of the Door for the Regal Order of the Golden Door to Good Fellowship, but Goober seems well suited for the role.

The most important thing the Keeper of the Door must remember is the secret password. (Geronimo)

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

A Sinking Feeling

Andy and Barney normally are the winning fishermen in the Opening Day Sweepstakes. But normally Henry Bennett (John Qualen) isn't in their boat.

Barney is convinced their winning streak has ended because Henry is a jinx. Pretty soon he's got Henry and the whole town believing it too. Not that Barney is one to be the slightest bit superstitious, mind you.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1960
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Firewater

It should have been no surprise to find good old-fashioned moonshine behind the shack near Jubal Foster's barn, which has recently burned down ("The Keeper of the Flame," Episode #46). After all, as Barney once said, "Where there's smoke, there's firewater."

Soon Barney is full of evidence and comes to a staggering conclusion. This time moonshining Jubal meets his match.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Breathtaking Situation

Barney wants to find out about new town doctor Robert Benson (George Nader), so he schedules a routine physical exam as a ruse to probe for information.

By the time the exam is over, though, Barney the hypochondriac has become so distracted about his low blood pressure ("Am I gonna pull through?") that he totally forgets about his intended interrogation.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Mr. Goss Cleans His Plate

Dry cleaner Fred Goss (Fred Sherman) is dead serious about his work. "Gawdy is no joke, no sirree; takes lots of work to get it cleaned off proper — lots of good spotting."

Fred had an eye for Aunt Bee ("Wedding Bells for Aunt Bee," Episode #58) until he's scared off by the rhinestone buttons on her dress. (Don't talk to him about rhinestones — a dry cleaner's worst nightmare.)

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

1980
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Debonair Deputy

Barney is proud of the attention he gives to his official appearance. When on duty, he's always dressed in his full uniform — including cap, tie and firearm. And well polished shoes (including the backs).

Where Barney carries his bullet is another question. It's supposed to be in his shirt pocket (usually the left one), but every once in a while he'll sneak it into his gun, where it never seems to stay very long.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

©1980
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Forget Something, Barn?

Almost everybody enjoys a good laugh when "no good loafers" secretly put Barney's sidecar up on blocks before he tries to take Andy "sidecar express to the Diner."

Only Barney fails to see the humor of the situation as he so proudly pulls away sidecarless on his motorcycle. Pranks like this one turn out to be tame compared to the cycle of pain Barney puts the town through.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

The New Mayberry Minstrels

Barney appears to have a lock on being soloist in a concert until it's discovered that Gomer has a far superior singing voice ("The Song Festers," Episode #116).

Even his years of voice training under Eleanora Poulitice could not prepare Barney for the disappointment of losing out as soloist. It's little consolation for Barney that Eleanora has given him an A in breathing.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Pep Talk

When Helen's niece Cynthia proves to be better than Opie at running, jumping and every other athletic pursuit ("Opie's Girlfriend," #190), Goober offers Opie advice about how to deal with the situation.

However, it's only when Cynthia lets Opie win (in order to soothe his sensitive male ego) that he regains his confidence. That's different than when Helen beats Andy in bowling. Andy explains that he lost only because he wasn't wearing his own bowling shoes.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

"Say it again."

Goober loves to fish. His favorite spots include Myers' Lake, Tucker's Lake and the Warner River. His best weekend of fishing saw him catch seven perch and six largemouth bass.

His favorite bait is a banana peel with red yarn. However, that combination did him no good in his efforts to catch legendary silver carp Old Sam, who's partial to potato salad.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Lone Trombone

Andy Taylor is a versatile musician. He sings in the town and church choirs and is leader of the town band. He plays the guitar and tuba — and obviously can make the slide to trombone with ease.

He's probably at his best when he's peacefully strumming his guitar on the front porch on a summer evening. The whole world seems tuned into Mayberry when that happens.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Hello Dolly!

When Dolly, the horse recently retired from pulling Mayberry's milk cart, loses her appetite ("Good-bye Dolly," Episode #214), Opie is concerned because it's his job to feed her.

Everyone's puzzled about why Dolly won't eat until Opie figures out that she simply misses her work. Soon the lovable horse is back on the job, happily pushing dairy products and eating as much as ever.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Snack Time

When Opie brings a hungry little dog to the Courthouse, Andy raids Barney's lunchbox for sandwiches and candy. Barney can't believe it.

Andy assures Barney that he'll replace the food, but Barney is still troubled that his well-planned daily menu has been disrupted. As he explains, "A slender, high spirited person needs his sugar pick-me-up late in the day."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Otis With Andy's Fixer-upper

OTIS: I gotta put that inside of me?

ANDY: You waddn't very particular what you were putting inside you last night. Now go on.

OTIS: Do I have to?

ANDY: Yeah. It'll fix you up — help you enjoy your food.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

"Everybody on the truck."

In addition to illegally parking his truck, Briscoe Darling is in the process of committing a 907. That's the code for "dipping a hat in a horse trough." In this case it's the David Mendelbight Memorial Horse Trough, which has a plaque that reads "Let no horse go thirsty here."

Once Andy makes him aware of his violation, Briscoe is quick to indicate his cooperation. "There ain't a horse in sight, but if one comes along, I'll give him the right of way."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Red Barn

Once he's kicked out of his apartment by Mrs. Mendelbright, Barney takes refuge in the Court-house. He makes out O.K., but the backroom is not quite as homey as his apartment.

But the biggest problem is a lack of privacy when he's on a date with Thelma Lou. He never knows who might pop in unannounced (Andy and Opie, for instance) for some enlightening conversation.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Classified

Miss Crump's Pop Quiz #4

1. Mayberry's only Indian is a member of what tribe?
2. Who is the "Merry Madcap of Mayberry"?
3. What is Andy Taylor's favorite magazine?

- Answers:
1. Cherokee
 2. Howard Sprague
 3. National Geographic

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Blooney!

162

Mayberrians love to celebrate special occasions. And certainly Barney's fifth year on the force is just such a time. Everyone gathers around (Andy's on his way) in anticipation of some delicious homemade cake, root beer and other wholesome goodies.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Miracle Salve

Opie and his pals are having a tough time selling their jars of salve. At 35 cents a jar, Miracle Salve ought to be a bargain — especially considering the variety of things it's good for.

The pesky ointment was no quick-cure for the young Mayberrmans. Trey Bowden even got blacklisted for his poor sales performance. It's a sure thing none of the boys ever won the pony offered as a prize for the top salesman, but at last report Barney and Gomer were still in the running.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

A Set

Director Bob Sweeney and Andy Griffith ponder a location scene in the forest. If you listen closely, you might hear Mr. McBeevee jingling as he walks around in the treetops. Then again, it might just be your imagination.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1980
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Window Shopping

Barney and Thelma Lou talk about what his den would be like ("Barney and Thelma Lou, Phffft!" Episode #126)

BARNEY I want to have it so it smells of real leather and pipe tobacco, good books — maybe a dog

THELMA LOU You want it to smell of a dog?

BARNEY No, I mean I want a dog there — you know, lying there. I want to have a place to come back to where I can just put my feet up, light my pipe. You know, something, when I come home from work, I'm just completely shot.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Fast-gun Fife

Some of Barney's nicknames: Barney the Beast, Wild Bill Fife, Tiger Fife, Reliable Barney Fife, Fearless Fife, Fife the Fierce, Rifle Fife and Crazy-gun Barney.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

On Guard!

With night watchman Asa Breeney (Charles Thompson) and Barney both on the job, it's a wonder that Weaver's Department Store ever survives ("The Shoplifters," Episode #117).

But Asa admires Barney — especially his "bullet maintenance" As Andy once told Asa, "You and Barney got the most beautiful bullets in town."

Asa's also proud of his shiny ball of tin foil.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Fun Girls

Whenever the "fun girls" arrive on the scene from Mt. Pilot, Andy and Barney are sure to have their hands full. Daphne ("Hello, Doll!") and Skippy ("Oh, Bernie, you're a scream!") are always looking for a good time.

Without fail, the fun girls will cause a rift between Andy and Barney and their true loves, Helen and Thelma Lou. But they are good dancers and they know true gentlemen when they see them, so they deserve a little slack. After all, they're from out of town.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Fields of Investigation

When con man Oscar Fields (J. Pat O'Malley) tries to swindle Mrs. Mendelbright out of her life's savings ($3,600.43), he meets his match with Barney, her devoted tenant.

Among the crook's other aliases are Otto Feldman and Norman Feldspar. As Andy says, he a "bunco artist all the way."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Recaptured...Again

Barney and Gomer have a tendency to let their prisoners escape — sometimes more than once. Fortunately, Andy is around to nab this one both times.

On the other hand, Gomer performs his duties with great bravery. In fact, he too nabbed a suspect — bare-handed. Never mind that the man he collared was Barney.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynden, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Seasoned Greetings

Barney can never be pleased when Mrs. Mendelbright drops by to inspect what's going on in his room (no cooking allowed). But after Barney saves Mrs. Mendelbright from a devious swindler, she allows him to cook as much as he wants. She even lowers his rent by a dollar (to $5 a week). That's friendship.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Mayberry Friends and Grins

Mayberry is a happy place. Just look at all the smiling faces. And there's a lot to be happy about in Mayberry. It's a peaceful town where folks genuinely care for each other. Life's easy and slow. It's a place everyone is proud to call home.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Rafe Hollister

Rafe Hollister (Jack Palance) is one of Mayberry's most endearing citizens. He does a little moonshining, but "not so as you could notice." Mostly he and wife Martha stick to farming. In fact, he's the recognized leader among the farmers in his neck of the woods.

Rafe's most remarkable talent is his masterful singing voice. He's the hands-down winner of the ladies League Musicals. His renditions of such standards as Look Down That Lonesome Road and Riding on That New River Train earn him the admiration of all Mayberryans.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Oh My, Darlings!

Whenever the Darlings come to town, music is always the first order of business. Even when they're trying to find a husband for little Andelina ("The Darling Baby," Episode #139), there's always time for some friendly picking. However, they do have to be careful about playing Will You Love Me When I'm Old and Ugly. "That one makes the baby cry."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Waiting for the Gold Shipment

A few raindrops won't stop Mayberrians from seeing a "secret" gold shipment as it passes through town ("A Black Day for Mayberry," Episode #102). The whole town turns out to cheer the armored car — much to Andy's distress.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Life at "The Rock"

More often than he'd like, Barney locks himself in a cell at the jail, which he dubs "The Rock." On this particular occasion, he manages to capture a couple of plainclothes detectives while allowing two real crooks to escape ("The Big House," Episode #95).

With Gomer as "blockhouse lookout" on the jail's roof, there's always hope that the crooks won't get completely away. Then again, maybe it's best to go find Andy.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

"No hunt beware open and closed no credit"

HELEN: What?

ERNEST T.: *That's the sentence I learnt last night.
Learnt how to write it too.*

HELEN: Well, that's very good, Ernest T. We'll discuss that in English class. Right now, we're going to do arithmetic.

ERNEST T.: You always want to do something else just when I want to do something else.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Chili Time

There are many rules at Mrs. Mendelbright's apartments, and most are just a little too strict for Barney.

For example, you can't very well expect a swinging bachelor to make it on just a 40-watt bulb or not cook in his room. After all, any man with bound volumes of True Blue Detective is going to want to do some late-night reading — plus plenty of cooking.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Everett WA 98003

1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

"Here it comes.
Here it comes."

AUNT BEE: Oh, my, what a day for a gold shipment. I've never seen so many people turn out in the town. Isn't it wonderful?

OPIE: What time they coming through with the gold, Gomer?

GOMER: The truck oughta be coming through any minute now.

OPIE: They giving away any free samples?

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Double Deputies

180

"You're so wrapped up in your books and your charts that you're ignorant about people. And you want to know something else? I ain't gonna stand by and see this happen."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Mountain Wedding

ERNEST T.: You're mine. You was meant to be mine. You will be mine. Charlene, I'll make you a fine husband. I'm a little mean, but I make up for it by being real healthy. Say you'll be mine. Say you'll be my beloued-ded.

BARNEY (lifting veil): I wouldn't marry you if you were the last man on earth.

ERNEST T.: (speechless)

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Deputy Otis

ANDY: Raise your right hand. Do you Otis Campbell solemnly swear to uphold the duties of your office and conduct yourself in a manner that'll do credit to the Mayberry Sheriff's Office?

OTIS: I do.

ANDY: Good. That's all there is to it. Now you're a full-fledged deputy and you can honestly tell your family you work here.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Duelling Guitars

Jim Lindsey (James Best) comes back to Mayberry ("The Guitar Player Returns," Episode #31) and tells all about his big successes with Bobby Fleet and His Band With a Beat. In fact, he has become such a success, he decides to leave the band.

When his solo career leaves him singing the blues, he's too proud (and maybe just a little stubborn) to ask Bobby if he can rejoin the band. There's nothing to fret about, though. Andy is there to restore harmony.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1980
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Sidecar Express

Barney's about to take Andy for a ride in the sidecar.

ANDY: Oh-h.

BARNEY: What's the matter?

ANDY: Oh, I don't know. I don't have a jacket or a helmet or goggles or anything.

BARNEY: You'll be in the sidecar. Who's gonna know?

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

To Bee or Not to Bee

ANDY: If you'll give her a chance, why, pretty soon you'll love Aunt Bee as much as you ever loved Rose.

OPIE: Aw, Paw, she can't do anything like Rose can. She can't fish or hunt frogs or play baseball with me like Rose did. Gosh!

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Stumped

ANDY: Barney! What in the world happened?!

BARNEY: He was here, Andy!

ANDY: Dirkson?

BARNEY: Yeah. He got the drop on me.

ANDY: You mean he had a gun?

BARNEY: Well, uh, he has now.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

"Oh, Andy, I know a lot about baseball.
Who do you think I am — a ninny?"

AUNT BEE: What's that?

ANDY: Oh, well, uh, that's a bat. Yes, and with the bat you hit the ball, you see

(Aunt Bee grips the bat by the big end.)

ANDY: Uh, Aunt Bee, I think you've got it wrong. I believe...I believe you hold it with the little end, see, and you hit with the big end.

AUNT BEE: Oh-ho, that makes it easier.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood WA 98037

© 1960
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

We the People

Barney knows the Preamble of the Constitution by heart. But for those who might need a Refresher, here it is:

We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessing of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this CONSTITUTION for the United States of America.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Courthouse Cousins

BARNEY: Andy, I want the folks in this town to realize that you picked me to be your deputy because you, well, you looked over all the candidates for the job and you judged their qualifications and their character and their ability, and you come to the fair, the just and the honest conclusion that I was the best suited for the job. And I want to thank you, Cousin Andy.

ANDY: You're welcome, Cousin Barney.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Barney and the Cave Rescue

Attention! Attention! This is Deputy Barney Fife speaking. This is an emergency. Repeat. An emergency. Approach the cave entrance slowly. Slowly! Do not panic. Repeat. Do not panic!

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Double-barrelled Deputy

For most of his crime-fighting work, Barney is content with his .38 revolver. But when necessary, he's more than ready to "bring in the heavy artillery."

Shotguns are the main auxiliary weapons at the Courthouse. Of course, for a true emergency, Andy does keep a shovel and a rake in the trunk of the squad car. Not to mention a jack.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

©1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Wall Partners

Andy and Barney's friendship is rock solid. Oh, sure, every once in a while they have their misunderstandings. Andy will wear Barney's hat ("Don't wear my hat, Ange."), or Barney will make Andy's jaw muscles start to work. But in the end, they always stand up for each other.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Classic Clerk

Howard once followed his rainbow and left Mayberry to live on a Caribbean island ("Howard's New Life," Episode #235). But he comes back.

ANDY: I thought you wanted to follow your rainbow and everything.

HOWARD: Yeah, well I guess I just followed it to the wrong end. My pot of gold is right here in Mayberry.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

©1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Bee Pouring It On

One thing's for sure: Everybody in the Taylor household is well fed. And it's little wonder with Aunt Bee's skills as a cook and her natural hospitality.

An appreciative visitor once summed it up, "Aunt Bee, that was not only one of the best meals I've ever had, but it was served by the most charming hostess."

Never mind that the visitor was a bank robber.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Stick 'em Up!

When Leon tells you to reach, you can never be sure whether it's because he has his pistol in hand, or he simply wants to offer you a bite of his sandwich.

Barney can always count on Leon to keep a secret. Indeed, it's safe to say that everyone's secrets are secure with Leon. His lips are sealed with peanut butter.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by Pacific Teating Center, Inc.
Lynwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Bee Lines

Before she learns to drive, Aunt Bee frequently takes bus trips. Almost always, her excursions are to visit friends and relatives in places like Mt. Pilot and Raleigh. There's also a regular run to Siler City.

Sometimes the whole Taylor family will take the bus somewhere—for example, the Raleigh airport to catch a flight to Hollywood. No matter where they go, they always return. As Floyd says, "The bus bringeth and the bus taketh away."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Bee's Birthday

No one is more reserved than Aunt Bee when it comes to material desires. But when a bed jacket catches her eye ("The Bed Jacket," Episode #75), she can't keep her mind off it.

The handkerchiefs Opie gives her are lovely and the canning jars that Andy gives her are "practical." But it's the bed jacket she really wants. Ol' eagle-eye Andy figures that out.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

A Door, Able Kid

Opie loves to hang around the Courthouse with his Pa and Barney. Sometimes he'll play checkers with Barney (and win). Other times he'll just visit and talk things over with Andy.

Opie also has chores to do around the jail. He takes out the trash and sweeps the floors. That frees Barney up to track down "beasts of prey."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

The Darling Baby

Opie doesn't know quite what to make of Andelina Darling. But he does know he doesn't want to marry her.

That's hard to believe — especially considering her dowry includes an eight-by-ten cottage (without a roof), a cow and two acres of side hill with good strong boulders.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Andy and the Woman Speeder

It doesn't matter that Barney, Floyd and Opie all witness Elizabeth Crowley (Jean Hagen) speeding through Mayberry on her way back to Washington, D.C. By the time Andy is ready to hear the case, she has charmed all of the witnesses into not testifying against her.

She eventually learns that her methods are wrong and pays her proper fine. But she never backs down from her claim that Barney bears an "amazing resemblance to Frank Sinatra."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Down by the Duck Pond

There are lots of reasons for taking a drive in the squad car down to the duck pond. However, seeing the ducks is not foremost among them.

Barney in particular seems to have a passion for the duck pond. Andy has been known to skip rocks and talk with hawks when he's there. If any emergencies come up, it's nice to know that the squad car is nearby.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

All Set

Members of the crew position a camera following the direction of Bob Sweeney (seated). The technique of expertly using a single camera (standard practice for movies) rather than three cameras (as is common for most TV sitcoms) had an important effect on the overall presentation of Mayberry.

Among the episodes directed by Sweeney are "The Pickle Story" (Episode #43), "Aunt Bee the Warden" (Episode #55), "The Darlings Are Coming" (Episode #68) and "Dogs, Dogs, Dogs" (Episode #93). In fact, he directed more episodes of "The Andy Griffith Show" than anyone else.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Two Boys and a Baby

Opie and buddy Arnold Bailey are perplexed about what to do when they find a surprise on the Courthouse steps one morning ("Opie Finds a Baby," Episode #202).

The two boys actually turn out to be capable adoptive parents for the baby before the real parents, who abandoned the child, return. Needless to say, Andy has several lectures to give — to both sets of parents.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

At the Ballpark

An excerpt from Howard Sprague's editorial about Andy's umpiring Opie's Little League game:

"Why does a man take a job as umpire and expose himself to all kinds of abuse? I know why one man in particular did it. His reason is because he was asked to — as a favor. He wasn't particularly anxious to do it because his son happened to be playing on the team and he didn't want to run the risk of not being completely impartial. It seems to me that once a man is asked to handle a job like that, any decisions he makes — right or wrong — should be accepted in the spirit of good sportsmanship."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Barney Fife, Realtor

Never one to miss an opportunity for picking up some extra spending money, Barney invests in stocks, records and rare nickels.

However, his biggest moonlighting project is in real estate. He has it all figured out. Mr. and Mrs. Simms will buy Andy's house, the Mortons will buy the Simms' house, the Clarks will buy the Mortons' house and Andy will buy the 'Williams' house. It's no surprise to anyone except Barney when the plan fizzles.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

©1990
Magberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Not Pleased

Andy and Barney are in the smokehouse and they don't even know it. Thelma Lou and Helen have just spotted them coming out of the Courthouse with Daphne and Skippy ("Fun Girls," Episode #123).

The big dance the next night? Well, Andy and Barney had better not count on Thelma Lou and Helen. They'll have other dates — namely Gomer and Goober.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Bee Sting

Andy and Aunt Bee give Briscoe Darling more than he can handle when he tries to get Aunt Bee to marry him ("Briscoe Declares for Aunt Bee," Episode #96).

Cleaning the entire Darling cabin was bad enough, but Aunt Bee's stern guidelines for table manners (not to mention the direct hits from her wooden spoon) soon make Briscoe a beaten man. "To be perfectly honest," he says of the romance, "it just ain't worth the pain."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Understanding English

Malcolm Merriweather is quick to understand that his tenure at the Taylors makes Aunt Bee feel unneeded ("The Return of Malcolm Merriweather," Episode #124). He remedies the situation and then tells Opie before departing:

"You try and be a little more help around here, young man. And when your Aunt Bee starts singing around the house — and she will soon — you just join in and have a regular sing-along with Aunt Bee. All right?"

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Play More

Opie knows that as long as he can get his Pa to play one more song, he won't have to go to bed. But Andy's wise to Opie's tricks. He sends Opie off to bed. But girlfriend Peggy still provides an appreciative audience.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Largemouth Bass Fishing

Ernest T. woos Charlene:

"I can do chin-ups. I'm the best rock-thrower in the county and I'm saving up for a gold tooth. I'm the man for you, Charlene. You know it. Now can I come over and kiss you on the jaw?"

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Staggering Success

Andy has these proud words for Barney's spirited discovery of Jubal Foster's still ("The Keeper of the Flame," Episode #46):

"Congratulations, Deputy Fife, on an outstanding job of detective work."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

"This car's just been sitting on a velvet pillow."—Barney Fife

Wally finds problems with the following things when he inspected Barney's new car. plugs, points, bearings, valves, rings, fuel pump, starter switch, ignition wires, water pump, oil pump, clutch, clutch bearings, clutchplate, brake lining, brake shoes, radiator hose, brake drums, radiator hose cover, sawdust in the transmission.

It also needs washing. Now about that "velvet pillow"..

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Lemon Fresh and Mrs. Lesh

There's one Barn every minute:

MRS. LESH: Even if you hadn't said anything, I could tell there was a lot of kindness behind those eyes.

BARNEY: Well, that's me — kind behind the eyes. How much did you want?

She wants exactly $297.50 for the "beautifully maintained, low-mileage car."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Sunday Drive Way

Barney assigns seats for the ride in his new car:

"Aunt Bee, you sit in the back seat, and Gomer, you sit in the back seat with Aunt Bee. And Opie, you sit in the back seat with Gomer and Aunt Bee. Now that takes care of the back seat. Now for the front seat. Now, I'll drive so I'll sit in the front seat. And Thelma Lou, you'll sit in the front seat next to the driver. And Andy, you'll sit in the front seat next to Thelma Lou and the driver."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Pillar of the Community

Emma becomes a real pill when new druggist Ellie Walker won't give her the medication she wants without a prescription ("Ellie Comes to Town," Episode #6).

No one can understand why Ellie would be so strict and put Emma through such misery. Soon, though, Ellie and Emma both find out that a little bit of sugar helps the medicine go down.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Mortar Fire

Ellie Walker takes her job as Mayberry's pharmacist very seriously. After all, she didn't get her pharmacy degree from Bernard University for nothing. About her work, she says, "I'm a pharmacist, and there are certain prescribed rules I'm sworn to follow."

For Mayberry, she's just what the doctor ordered.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Southern Draw

Andy and Opie have great fun doing things together. It's not uncommon for Andy to be seen engaged in a playful toy gunfight around the Courthouse.

At the same time, Andy is careful to instruct Opie about the difference between make-believe and truth. Sometimes Opie teaches Andy a lesson or two as well. Just ask Mr. McBeever.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Tannenbaum Barn

Christmas comes to Mayberry in a truly special way ("The Christmas Story," Episode #11). Even though Ben Weaver gives Andy and everybody else the dickens of time about allowing a prisoner to celebrate Christmas with his family, nothing can dent their holiday joy.

As it ends up, Ben himself becomes the one most consumed with the spirits of the season.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Sketch of the Imagination

Barney has produced his very own composite drawing of missing boy George Foley ("Runaway Kid," Episode #4). Soon Barney will realize he has—just moments before—met his missing match on Andy's front porch.

George actually prefers to be called "Tex." No matter what his name, it's back to the drawing board for Barney.

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1980
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.

The
Andy Griffith
Show

Let's Face It

"She's as pretty as a peach. Why, the boys ought to be buzzing around her like flies 'round a spoonful of honey."

And she has some more advice for Andy:

"Ellie's a wonderful girl, and if she's gonna have a husband, it ought to be you."

The Andy Griffith Show

Produced by
Pacific Trading Cards, Inc.
Lynnwood, WA 98037

© 1990
Mayberry Enterprises, Inc.